Application for La Porte Riverfront District Alcohol Permit – 609 Lincolnway

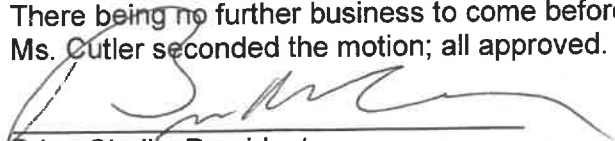

Bert Cook explained the application for Riverfront District Alcohol Permit for Mucho Mas and introduced the applicant's Jose and Susanna. Jose and Susanna, identified themselves as co-owners of Mucho Mas with 15 years in La Porte, spoke about the project and described the plans for the restaurant. He mentioned that they would like to be ready for changes downtown and have more drink options for visitors. Laura Cutler questioned what permit they are seeking and Mr. Marrufo responded that they are requesting a three-way permit to allow for beer and margaritas. There was additional discussion about the three-way permit request. Paul Brettin made a motion to recommend approval of the application for a Three-Way La Porte Riverfront District Alcohol Permit at 609 Lincolnway and the motion was seconded by Laura Cutler. The motion passed 4-0.

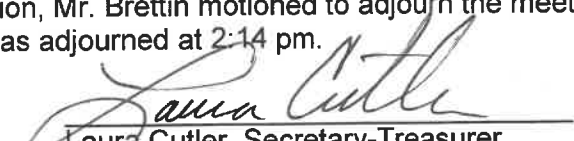

New Business: None.

Old Business: None.

Other Business: None.

There being no further business to come before the Commission, Mr. Brettin motioned to adjourn the meeting; Ms. Cutler seconded the motion; all approved. The meeting was adjourned at 2:14 pm.
